

National Performance Manager (NPM)

Salary: £27,000 per annum

Location: UK based

Type of Contract: Full-time, fixed term to 31st March 2021

Closing Date: Friday 6th Oct

Interview Date: w/c 16th Oct

Due to the current postholder being recruited by an international federation, England Handball is looking to appoint a replacement National Performance Manager who will lead and deliver England Handball's Talent Pathway programme (ETP).

The successful applicant will be responsible for leading and delivering a holistic and integrated athlete development programme that aims to develop and prepare individuals (14+) to reach the very highest levels of domestic/international performance including selection within England representative sides and leading to possible selection for GB squads.

The NPM will also work closely with colleagues to ensure that the quality of technical and tactical skills and understanding delivered in the Award in Sporting Excellence programme meets the exacting standards needed to produce world class Junior international players.

Applicants will have substantial experience of performance sport, ideally in handball, and be able to evidence advanced coaching qualifications and experience. They should also have proven engagement with relevant national and regional organisations and initiatives. They will have experience of working within a multi-disciplinary team in the delivery of coaching support and be able to communicate effectively to a wide range of audiences. A demonstrated ability to plan and implement training programmes including needs analysis and monitoring is also required. The successful applicant must be willing to undertake additional CPD in the fields of Tutoring, and Assessor Training. They must also be UK based with a clean driving licence and daily access to a car for work purposes.

Potential Applicants are advised to research the England Talent Pathway by visiting the EHA website - www.EnglandHandball.com/performance

In line with its policy on Equality & Diversity, England Handball is keen to encourage applications from women and members of black and minority ethnic groups as well as people with a disability.
