Closing Date: Friday 3rd March
Interview Date: w/c 13th March

Following the announcement by Sport England of its increased funding award, England Handball is seeking to fill an exciting vacancy within its team to lead on a fast developing and important area of its work.

The Competitions & Events Manager will be responsible for ensuring the successful organisation of the England Handball's annual programme of league and cup competitions as well as its major events programme. This will involve liaison with the Competitions & Events Group which oversees the national leagues, engagement with regional league co-ordinators and regular communication with clubs and other organisations that participate in sanctioned competitions and events.

The successful candidate should be able to provide evidence of experience in delivering competitions and events within a sporting context and have the ability to manage a variety of stakeholders.

The postholder will also act as Lead Safeguarding Officer for the organisation ensuring compliance with all child protection legislation and liaison with the Child Protection in Sport Unit at the NSPCC. In addition, they will work with the Marketing & Communications Manager to help raise the profile of the EHA's competitions and events through increased publicity in a variety of online and print media.
